

Cake Decorating

Instructor: Cristy Sanders

Wednesday, December 14
6-9pm Hegewald Center

Cost: $15

Spend a fun evening learning how to create an impressive snowman cake. Please bring three 8 or 9 inch cakes and one 5 lb. box of Wilton fondant.

COMING SOON?

We are lucky to have two local residents interested in instructing several new classes. For these proposed classes to become a reality, we need several people to sign up for each. Please call and let us know you're interested, and we'll get the class on the calendar!

Lisa Plous

Is interested in teaching sewing, knitting, crocheting, embroidery, quilting, needlepointing and cooking classes. For students 9-14 years old.

Desi Allinger

Is interested in teaching classes which develop visual perception, spacial organization and visual discrimination through drawing. For students in grades K-12.
