

It's hard to say "No thank you ..."

Goodwill regrets we must refuse certain donations. While it may seem we are overly selective, the following items may be too costly to handle and sell. In addition, to remain in compliance with government regulations, some items are deemed unsafe for resale.

- Infant and child car seats and cribs.
- Large appliances (refrigerators, stoves, washers, dryers, water heaters, wood stoves, BBQ's, etc.).
- Household chemicals, insecticides, cleaning products, paint, household and/or yard debris.
- Automobile or truck parts, oil, tires, gasoline, fluids, etc.
- Disassembled lawn mowers, lawn mower parts, playground swing sets, or garden hoses.
- Any wet or soiled clothing, mattresses or furniture.
- Large fitness equipment and torch lamps w/open top.
- Used building materials (concrete, bricks, stones, scrap iron, etc.).
- Used bathroom fixtures (sinks, tubs, toilets, etc.)
- Hide-a-beds, king size beds and Hollywood bed frames
- Furniture in need of reupholstering.
- Newspapers and magazines (we accept collectibles - 50+ years old).
- Wall-to-wall carpet and padding.
- Firearms and ammunition. (We do accept antiques.)
- Food, beverages or cosmetics of any kind.
- Mattresses or box springs.
